

Michigan CSI

(Michigan Cyber Safety Initiative)

Attorney General Mike Cox

ACROSS

1. Predators may try to meet with me in person, and they may try to get me to keep it a SECRET from those who love me.
3. Every new person I meet only on the Internet is a STRANGER.
9. There are five types of PERSONAL INFORMATION that I will keep safe from the Internet: name/address/phone number/picture/school name.
10. The second Internet safety rule is: I KEEP AWAY.
11. The first Internet safety rule is: I KEEP SAFE.

DOWN

1. The Attorney General has three Internet SAFETY RULES.
2. Before going online, I should always ask for PERMISSION.
4. CHAT ROOMS are one of the most dangerous places for children to go on the Internet.
5. The third Internet safety rule is: I KEEP TELLING.
6. It is called CYBERBULLYING when people make fun of others or try to hurt people's feelings in cyber space.
7. I will tell a parent or trusted adult anytime something I see on the Internet makes me UNCOMFORTABLE.
8. The Attorney General gave me an Online Safety CONTRACT for me and my parent/guardian to sign.
